Alberto Tocchio Returns Back to Kairos

Kairos Group announces the introduction of Alberto Federico Tocchio into the Asset Management team of Kairos Partners SGR SpA led by Guido Maria Brera.

Tocchio joined Kairos right after his graduation in Economics at the University of Castellanza, Milan, and built his career in the Investment Management team of the Group's London office, Kairos Investment Management Limited. Tocchio has been a partner of the Kairos Group until he left in 2017.

In 2017, he joined Colombo Wealth SA, an independent asset management company based in Lugano, to continue his professional career as Chief Investment Officer and member of the Board of Directors.

Tocchio has now returned to the Group, joining the Investment Management team of the flexible flagship funds of Kairos based in Milano : KIS Pegasus UCITS, a sub-fund of the Luxembourg-based SICAV and Kairos Pegasus Fund S.A., a Luxembourg alternative investment fund, both focused on the European stock market.

Alberto Tocchio's return, along with Francesco Zantoni's in mid-June, allows Kairos Partners SGR SpA to bring together the Group's previous Investment Management team, which is further enriched by the expertise that they have gained over the years.

"With Alberto's return, the management team is strengthened and the Kairos laboratory, or - as I call it - our mother yeast, which is our real strength, continues to grow. With this consolidated team we will continue to carry out our mission and promptly propose new and successful solutions to the market", Guido Maria Brera, Chief Investment Officer - Asset Management of Kairos Partners SGR SpA and co-founder of the Group says.

"I am very proud to be back at Kairos ", Alberto Federico Tocchio says. "I am excited to be part of the team again which I had worked closely with for seventeen years, a team of professionals well-known in the market and that I deeply respect. I'm back enriched by further experience which I'm going to use to further strengthen the Kairos product factory."
